

Exploring the Wonders of “Hot Potatoes” and “Audacity”
Presented by Elizabeth Bays
2008 IFLTA Conference

Select Slides from my presentation:

Materials Required

- Computer
- Internet Access
- Microphone/Headphone sets
- Hot Potatoes Download
 - <http://hotpot.uvic.ca/>
- Audacity Download
 - <http://audacity.sourceforge.net/>
- MP3 converter from Audacity
 - <http://audacity.sourceforge.net/help/faq?s=install&i=lame-mp3>
- Teacher’s webpage (for posting your creations)

Presenter Contact Information

- Email
 - bayse@bcsc.k12.in.us

- Website
 - <http://www.bcsc.k12.in.us/1591207301601590/site/default.asp>
- Address
 - Columbus North High School
1400 25th Street
Columbus, IN 47201

Show YouTube Videos in Class Despite Internet Blocks!

- (At home) Copy the URL of the YouTube video you'd like to show
- Go to www.keepvid.com and insert the URL to convert it to an FLV movie file (Follow website directions to do this)
- Save your new file as an ~.flv
- Download an FLV player at http://www.download.com/FLV-Player/3000-13632_4-10467081.html
- Transfer the saved video file and your FLV player to your school computer via jump drive or CD
- Play your video!